ORDINARY

THE ORDER OF VESPERS

INTRODUCTION

The congregation and ministers kneel and quietly make these prayers.

In the name ✠ of the all-holy and undivided Trinity. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The congregation and ministers stand as the officiant begins.

V. O God, ✠ make speed to save me. R. O Lord, make haste to help me.

The congregation and ministers say this together. Everywhere the three Persons of the Holy Trinity are invoked together, bow and cross yourself.

A. Glor-y be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spir- it.

As it was in the be-gin-ning, is now and ev-er shall be: world without

end. Amen. A-le-lu-ia.

PSALMODY AND PROPER

Turn to the green ribbon and sing the appointed psalms.

*The lector then stands facing the altar before the choir and proclaims the chapter.
The congregation responds.*

R. Thanks be to God.

Turn to the red ribbon and sing the appointed propers.

CONCLUSION

The congregation and ministers kneel as the cantors turn to the blue ribbon and sing the appointed Kyrie. Once this has been completed, make this prayer quietly.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

All now stand. If the officiant is not a priest, he says.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee. Let us pray.

But if he is a priest, he turns to the congregation and says.

V. The Lord be with you. R. And with thy spir- it. Let us pray.

The Order of Vespers

The officiant then prays the collect. The congregation responds.

R. Amen.

The service is concluded with this petition.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee. V. Let us bless the Father, and the Son, with the Ho- ly Spir- it. R. Let us praise him and magni- fy him for-ev-er. V. May the souls of the faithful, through the mer-cy of God, rest in peace. R. Thanks be to God.

All the congregation and ministers kneel and make quietly these prayers.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

THE ORDER OF COMPLINE

INTRODUCTION

The congregation and ministers kneel and quietly make these prayers.

In the name ✙ of the all-holy and undivided Trinity. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

The officiant begins in a low tone, with all still kneeling.

℣. Turn us then, O God our Sav-ior. ℞. And let thine anger cease from us.

The congregation and ministers stand as the officiant continues in a higher tone.

℣. O God, ✙ make speed to save me. ℞. O Lord, make haste to help me.

The congregation and ministers say this together. Everywhere the three Persons of the Holy Trinity are invoked together, bow and cross yourself.

℟. Glor-y be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho-ly Spir- it.

Conclusion

end. Amen. A-le-lu-ia.

PSALMODY AND PROPERS

Turn to the green ribbon and sing the appointed psalms.

The lector then stands facing the altar before the choir and proclaims the chapter. The congregation responds.

R. Thanks be to God.

Turn to the red ribbon and sing the appointed propers.

CONCLUSION

The congregation and ministers kneel as the cantors turn to the blue ribbon and sing the appointed Kyrie. Once this has been completed, make this prayer quietly.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

In a low voice, the congregation and ministers say both these prayers together.

I confess to almighty God and to all the Saints that I have sinned exceedingly in thought, word, and deed: through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech blessed Mary ever-Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and all the Saints to pray for me to the Lord our God.

The Order of Compline

If the officiant is a priest, he alone says this prayer.

May almighty God ✠ have mercy upon us and forgive us all our sins, deliver us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

All now stand. If the officiant is not a priest, he says.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto thee. Let us pray.

But if he is a priest, he turns to the congregation and says.

V. The Lord be with you. R. And with thy spir- it. Let us pray.

The officiant then prays the collect. The congregation responds.

R. Amen.

Turn to the blue ribbon and sing the Marian anthem with its versicle. The officiant will pray the corresponding collect to which the congregation responds.

R. Amen.

The service is concluded with this petition.

V. I will lay me down in peace. R. And take my rest. V. Let us bless the Father, and the Son, with the Ho- ly Spir- it. R. Let us praise him and

Conclusion

magni- fy him for- ev- er. V. The almighty and mer- ci- ful Lord pre- serve us, and give us his bles- sing. R. Amen. V. May almighty God ✠ grant us a qui- et night and a per- fect end. R. Thanks be to God.

The congregation and ministers kneel and make quietly these prayers.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty. From whence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of the Saints, the remission of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

until I make thine en-emies thy footstool.

The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Zion * be thou ruler, even in the midst among thine enemies.

In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free-will offerings with a holy worship * the dew of thy birth is of the womb of the morning.

The Lord sware, and will not repent: * Thou art a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

The Lord upon thy right hand * shall wound even kings in the day of his wrath.

He shall judge among the heathen; he shall fill the places with the dead bodies * and smite in sunder the heads over diverse countries.

He shall drink of the brook in the way * therefore shall he lift up his head.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be: * world without end. Amen.

will give thanks unto the Lord with my whole heart * secretly among the faithful and in the congre- ga-tion.

The works of the Lord are great * sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

His work is worthy to be praise, and had in honor * and his righteousness endureth forever.

The merciful and gracious Lord hath so done his marvelous works * that they ought to be had in remembrance.

He hath given meat unto them that fear him * he shall ever be mindful of his covenant.

He hath shewed his people the power of his works * that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

The works of his hands are verity and judgment * all his commandments are true.

They stand fast forever and ever * and are done in truth and equity.

He sent redemption unto his people * he hath commanded his covenant forever; holy and reverend is his Name.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom * a good understanding have all they that do thereafter; his praise endureth forever.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be * world without end. Amen.

les-ed is the man that fear-eth the Lord * he hath great delight in his com-mandments.

His seed shall be mighty upon earth *
the generation of the faithful shall be blessed.

Riches and plenteousness shall be in his house * and his righteousness endureth forever.

Unto the godly there ariseth up light in the darkness * he is merciful, loving,
and righteous.

A good man is merciful, and lendeth *
and will guide his words with discretion.

For he shall never be moved * and the righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.

He will not be afraid of any evil tidings * for his heart standeth fast, and believeth in the Lord.

His heart is established, and will not shrink * until he sees his desire upon his enemies.

He hath dispersed abroad, and given to the poor * and his righteousness remaineth forever; his horn shall be exalted with honor.

The ungodly shall see it, and it shall grieve him * he shall gnash with his teeth, and consume away; the desire of the ungodly shall perish.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son

For thou shalt eat the labors of thine hands * O well is thee, and happy shalt thou be.

Thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine * upon the walls of thine house.

Thy children like the olive branches * round about thy table.

Lo, thus shall the man be blessed * that feareth the Lord.

The Lord from out of Zion shall so bless thee * that thou shalt see Jerusalem in prosperity all thy life long.

Yea, that thou shalt see thy children's children * and peace upon Israel.

How he sware unto the Lord * and vowed a vow unto the almighty God of Jacob.

I will not come within the tabernacle of mine house * nor climb up into my bed.

I will not suffer mine eyes to sleep, nor mine eyelids to slumber * neither the temples of my head to take any rest.

Until I find out a place for the temple of the Lord * a habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

Lo, we heard of the same at Ephrata *
and found it in the wood.

We will go into his tabernacle * and fall
low on our knees before his footstool.

Arise, O Lord, into thy resting place *
thou, and the ark of thy strength.

Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness * and let thy saints sing with joyfulness.

For thy servant David's sake * turn not away the presence of thine Anointed².

The Lord hath made a faithful oath unto David * and he shall not shrink from it.

Of the fruit of thy body * shall I set upon thy seat.

If thy children will keep my covenant, and my testimonies that I shall learn them * their children also shall sit upon thy throne forevermore.

For the Lord hath chosen Zion to be a habitation for himself * he hath longed for her.

This shall be my rest forever * here will
I dwell, for I have a delight therein.

I will bless her victuals with increase * and will satisfy her poor with bread.

I will deck her priests with salvation *
and her saints shall rejoice and sing.

There shall I make the horn of David to flourish * I have ordained a lantern for

O praise the Lord, for the Lord is gracious * O sing praises unto his Name, for it is lovely.

For why? the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself * and Israel for his own possession.

For I know that the Lord is great * and that our Lord is above all gods.

Whatsoever the Lord pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth * and in the sea, and in all deep places.

He bringeth forth the clouds from the ends of the world * and sendeth forth lightnings with the rain, bringing the winds out of his treasures.

He smote the firstborn of Egypt * from

He smote diverse nations * and slew mighty kings.

Sehon king of the Amorites; and Og the king of Basan * and all the kingdoms of

And gave their land to be a heritage *

Thy Name, O Lord, endureth for ever

They have ears, and yet they hear not * neither is there any breath in their mouths.

They that make them are like unto

I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy Name, because of thy loving-kindness and truth * for thou hast magnified thy Name, and thy Word above all things.

When I called upon thee, thou heardest me * and enduedst my soul with much strength.

All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord * for they have heard the words of thy mouth.

Yea, they shall sing of the ways of the Lord * that great is the glory of the Lord.

For though the Lord be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly * as for the proud, he beholdeth them afar off.

Though I walk in the midst of trouble, yet shalt thou refresh me * thou shalt stretch forth thy hand upon the furiousness of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

The Lord shall make good his loving-kindness toward me * yea, thy mercy, O Lord, endureth forever; despise not then the works of thine own hands.

In the pres-ence of the An- gels will I sing praise to thee, my God.

O

Lord, * thou hast searched me out, and known me.

Ps. 138
iii. vi.

O

Lord, thou hast searched me out, and known me *

thou knewest my down -sitting, and mine uprising; thou under- standest my thoughts long be-fore.

Thou art about my path, and about my bed * and spiest out all my ways.

For lo, there is not a word in my tongue * but thou, O Lord, knowest it altogether.

Thou hast fashioned me behind and before * and laid thine hand upon me.

Such knowledge is too wonderful and excellent for me * I cannot attain unto it.

If I climb up into heaven, thou art there

* if I go down to hell, thou art there also.

If I take the wings of the morning * and remain in the uttermost parts of the sea.

Even there also shall thy hand lead me * and thy right hand shall hold me.

If I say, Peradventure the darkness shall cover me * then shall my night be turned to day.

Yea, the darkness is no darkness with thee, but the night is as clear as the day * the darkness and light to thee are both alike.

For my reins are thine * thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

I will give thanks unto thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made * marvelous are thy works, and that my soul knoweth right well.

My bones are not hid from thee * though I be made secretly, and fashioned beneath in the earth.

Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect * and in thy book were all my members written.

Which day by day were fashioned * when as yet there was none of them.

How dear are thy counsels unto me, O God * O how great is the sum of them.

If I tell them, they are more in number than the sand * when I wake up, I am present with thee.

Wilt thou not slay the wicked, O God? * depart from me, ye bloodthirsty men.

For they speak unrighteously against thee * and thine enemies take thy Name in vain.

Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee * and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

Yea, I hate them right sore * even as though they were mine enemies.

Try me, O God, and seek the ground of my heart * prove me, and examine my thoughts.

Look well if there be any way of wickedness in me * and lead me in the way everlasting.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be * world without end. Amen.

lips.

Keep me, O Lord, from the hands of the ungodly * preserve me from the wicked men, who are purposed to overthrow my goings.

The proud have laid a snare for me, and spread a net abroad with cords * yea, and set traps in my way.

I said unto the Lord, Thou art my God
* hear the voice of my prayers, O Lord.

O Lord God, thou strength of my salvation * thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

Let not the ungodly have his desire, O
Lord * let not his mischievous imagination prosper, lest they be too proud.

Let the mischief of their own lips fall upon the head of them * that compass me about.

Let hot burning coals fall upon them * let them be cast into the fire, and into the pit, that they never rise up again.

A man full of words shall not prosper upon the earth * evil shall hunt the wicked person to overthrow him.

Sure I am that the Lord will avenge the poor * and maintain the cause of the helpless.

The righteous also shall give thanks
unto thy Name * and the just shall con-

O let not mine heart be inclined to any evil thing * let me not be occupied in ungodly works with the men that work wickedness, neither let me eat of such things as please them.

Let the righteous rather smite me

But let not their precious balms break my head * yea, I will pray yet against their wickedness.

Let their judges be overthrown in stony places * that they may hear my words, for they are sweet.

Our bones lie scattered before the pit *
like as when one breaketh and heweth

But mine eyes look unto thee, O Lord

Lord, what is man that thou hast such respect unto him? * or the son of man, that thou so regardest him?

Man is like a thing of nought * his time passeth away like a shadow.

Bow thy heavens, O Lord, and come down * touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

Cast forth thy lightning, and tear them * shoot out thine arrows, and consume them.

Send down thine hand from above * deliver me, and take me out of the great waters, from the hand of strange children.

Whose mouth talketh of vanity * and their right hand is a right hand of wickedness.

I will sing a new song unto thee, O God * and sing praises unto thee upon a ten-stringed lute.

Thou hast given victory unto kings * and hast delivered David thy servant from the peril of the sword.

Save me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children * whose mouth talketh of vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of iniquity.

That our sons may grow up as the young plants * and that our daughters may be as the polished corners of the temple.

That our garners may be full and plentiful with all manner of store * that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets.

That our oxen may be strong to labor, that there be no decay * no leading into captivity, and no complaining in our streets.

Happy are the people that are in such a case * yea, blessed are the people who have the Lord for their God.

Every day will I give thanks unto thee *
and praise thy Name forever and ever.

Great is the Lord, and marvelous, worthy to be praised * there is no end of his greatness.

One generation shall praise thy works unto another * and declare thy power.

As for me, I will be talking of thy worship * thy glory, thy praise, and wondrous works.

So that men shall speak of the might of thy marvelous acts * and I will also tell of thy greatness.

The memorial of thine abundant kindness shall be shewed * and men shall sing of thy righteousness.

The Lord is gracious and merciful * long-suffering, and of great goodness.

The Lord is loving unto every man * and his mercy is over all his works.

All thy works praise thee, O Lord * and thy saints give thanks unto thee.

They shew the glory of thy kingdom *
and talk of thy power.

That thy power, thy glory, and mightiness of thy kingdom * might be known unto men.

Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom * and thy dominion endureth throughout all ages.

The Lord upholdeth all such as fall *
and lifteth up all those that are down.

The eyes of all wait upon thee, O Lord * and thou givest them their meat in due season.

Thou openest thine hand * and fillest
all things living with plenteousness.

The Lord is righteous in all his ways *
and holy in all his works.

The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him * yea, all such as call upon him faithfully.

He will fulfill the desire of them that fear him * he also will hear their cry,
and will help them.

The Lord preserveth all that love him *
but scattereth abroad all the ungodly.

My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord * and let all flesh give thanks unto his holy Name forever and ever.

praise the Lord, for it is a good thing to sing praises unto our God * yea, a joyful and pleasant thing it is to be thankful.

The Lord doth build up Jerusalem * and gather together the outcasts of Israel.

He healeth those that are broken in heart * and giveth medicine to heal their sickness.

He telleth the number of the stars * and calleth them by all their names.

Great is our Lord, and great is his power * yea, and his wisdom is infinite.

The Lord setteth up the meek * and bringeth down to the ground the ungodly.

O sing unto the Lord with thankgiving * sing praises upon the harp unto our God.

Who covereth the heavens with clouds, and prepareth rain for the earth * and maketh the grass to grow upon the mountains, and herb for the use of men.

Who giveth fodder unto the cattle * and feedeth the young ravens that call upon him.

He hath no pleasure in the strength of a horse * neither delighteth he in any man's legs.

But the Lord's delight is in them that fear him * and put their trust in his mercy.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be * world without end. Amen.

For he hath made fast the bars of thy gates * and hath blest thy children within thee.

He maketh peace in thy borders * and filleth thee with the flour of wheat.

He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth * and his word runneth very swiftly.

He giveth snow like wool * and scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.

He casteth forth his ice like morsels * who is able to abide his frost?

He sendeth out his word, and melteth them * he bloweth his wind, and the waters flow.

He sheweth his word unto Jacob * his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.

He hath not dealt so with any nation * neither have the heathen knowledge of his laws.

ear me when I call, O God of my righteousness * thou hast set me at liberty when I was in trouble; have mercy upon me, and hearken unto my prayer.

O ye sons of men, how long will ye blaspheme mine honor? * and have such pleasure in vanity, and seek after lying?

Know this also, that the Lord hath chosen to himself the man that is godly * when I call upon the Lord, he will hear me.

Stand in awe, and sin not * commune with your own heart, and in your chamber, and be still.

Offer the sacrifice of righteousness * and put your trust in the Lord.

There be many that say * Who will shew us any good?

Lord, lift thou up * the light of thy countenance upon us.

Thou hast put gladness in my heart * since the time that their corn, and wine, and oil increased.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my rest * for it is thou, Lord, only, that makest me dwell in safety.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son * and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning is now, and ever shall be * world without end. Amen.

Ps. 90

I will say unto the Lord, Thou art my hope, and my stronghold * my God, in him will I trust.

For he shall deliver thee from the snare of the hunter * and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall defend thee under his wings, and thou shalt be safe under his feathers * his faithfulness and truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for any terror by night * nor for the arrow that flieth by day.

For the pestilence that walketh in darkness * nor for the sickness that destroyeth in the noonday.

A thousand shall fall beside thee, and ten thousand at thy right hand * but it shall not come nigh thee.

Yea, with thine eyes shalt thou behold * and see the reward of the ungodly.

For thou, Lord, art my hope * thou hast set thine house of defense very high.

There shall no evil happen unto thee * neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee * to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee in their hands * that thou hurt not thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt go upon the lion and adder * the young lion and the dragon shalt thou tread under thy feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him * I will set him up, because he hath known my Name.

He shall call upon me, and I will hear him * yea, I am with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and bring him to honor.

With long life will I satisfy him * and shew him my salvation.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter

Then said they among the heathen *
The Lord hath done great things for them.

Yea, the Lord hath done great things for us already * whereof we rejoice.

Turn our captivity, O Lord * as the

They that sow in tears * shall reap in
